

Enterprise Truck Rental is a service of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car brand, which is owned by Enterprise Holdings, the world's largest car rental operator.

FAST FACTS

With more than 400 locations across North America, as well as in Australia, we offer a range of trucks, cargo vans and tow-capable pickup trucks. We also rent our commercial-grade trucks for personal use.

All truck rental customers receive Enterprise's renowned high level of service, including free pickup and 24-hour roadside assistance.

In addition, any commercial truck renter can utilize Enterprise Telematics. Powered by global telematics leader Geotab, this solution provides real-time tracking data that enables customers to monitor vehicle and driver performance, while also improving vehicle safety and reducing costs.
